

SUB-CONTRACTORS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT REGARDING LOYALTY & GOOD FAITH

As a recognized sub-contractor of United, it is imperative that you act with a high degree of loyalty and good faith in performing services and interacting with United’s customers and the general public, with and on behalf of United as your actions may directly impact your company and United, with the possibility to either positively enhance or negatively damage the business, reputation and customer relationships.

As a sub-contractor you must act diligently and exercise good judgement when using social media for personal or business reasons. You must put the interests of United above your own when dealing with United's customers and to consider the interests of United generally in its dealings as a representative and ambassador of United.

Always protect confidential information of United and its clients. Do not publish any information, document, logo or image of United or its clients without express written permission from a recognized authority beforehand.

You have a duty to never represent yourself or United in a false or misleading way. All statements must be true and not misleading; all claims or statements must be substantiated. Do not post spam or remarks that are off-topic or offensive. Libel, slander or disparage United verbally or in writing directly or indirectly in any matter, in conversations, email, social media postings will not be tolerated.

Any social media use/posting must not be done during business hours and must not interfere with normal business activities. Social media use must not involve any form of solicitation of our clients and potentially embarrass the company, damage the company’s reputation or tarnish its image.

Failure to act with loyalty and good faith shall entitle United of all its remedies in such regard, including, without limitation, depending on the severity of the situation, to issue default warnings, terminations, injunctions to prevent certain behaviors and claims for damages
